

KEVIN HUART

Project/Change Manager – Senior Business Analyst

PROFILE

Active for 10 years in business analysis, process, project and change management in organizational transformation and IT tools implementation, I provide added value by quick understanding of complex matters and ability to propose and implement pragmatic and realistic solutions.

Empathic and communicative, I pay specific attention to interaction and adhesion of the different stakeholders to the project objectives and use concertation and co-creation as preferred decision-making process.
